

COLLEGE SUCCESS WEBSITES:

www.Act.org/fane – a free financial aid need estimator www.Actstudent.org/sampletest – has a complete set of online sample test questions for the Act.

www.Bls.gov/oco/ - Department of Labor's Occupational Outlook Handbook – includes employment training, earnings, projections, publications, etc. (2012-2013 to be released March 2012) www.careers-internet.org/ – Institute for Career Research, you can log on using username: 9953 and password: password www.Collegeapps.about.com – helps with writing admissions for applications and also for preparation for college.

www.Collegeboard.org – is a good website for SAT preparation, scholarship applications and helping parents.

www.Collegeconfidential.com – helps search for the perfect college for each student, helps figure out ways to pay for college and prepares students for college life.

www.Collegelife.about.com – getting ready for college life, and also good information for current college students.

www.Collegeview.com – a college search program

www.NextStepU.com

www.Commonapp.org – provides a simple application that is accepted at hundreds of colleges and universities nationwide.

www.Discovercolleges.com – request information about private colleges and be entered to win $2,500 scholarship towards a private college.

www.eCampustours.com – gives virtual tours of lots of schools, this is especially good if you can't actually get to the school in person.

www.Ed.gov – U.S. Department of Education's website with information for students and parents.

www.Ed.gov/gearup/ - GEAR UP: Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Programs. Resources to help low-income students prepare and succeed in postsecondary education.

www.Fafsa.ed.gov – free Application for Federal Student Aid. This is something many colleges will expect you to complete on your own.

www.Knowhow2go.org – has info for middle school students through college students as well as parents.

www.March2success.com – is especially good for ACT/SAT Preparation.

www.Makingitcount.com – is good for entering high school, entering college, or for entering a career. There is also a helpful section for parents.

www.Mappingyourfuture.org/collegeprep/seniorcalendar.htm - has a month by month guide on what to do to prepare for college starting August of your senior year.

www.Petersons.com – has a lot of information on test preparation and on how to choose a school.

www.Studentaid.ed.gov – Federal Student Aid Homepage www.TheU.com – Gives tours of colleges as well as having a test to help figure out what major and college fit you